PORT SECURITY & ACCESS INFORMATION

VEHICULAR ACCESS FOR DRIVERS AND PASSENGERS

- Drivers and all adult passengers are required to present a valid, government issued, photographic identification at all port entrances.
- Access by individuals with lost or stolen identification may be denied.
- Meeting planners and promoters should encourage attendees to carry valid, government issued photo identification at all times.
- Event registration badges DO NOT meet Port Everglades access requirement.

BUSES / SHUTTLES SERVICE

- Buses/Shuttles will have access through the Port's Everglades main checkpoints or through the Convention Center's shuttle gate with sufficient prior notice.
- All drivers must present government issued photo identification.
- Some vehicles will be randomly selected for a closer examination. This will not present an unreasonable delay.
- Passengers are required to show government issued photo identification when boarding Buses/Shuttles.

PORT ACCESS TO MINORS

- A "minor" refers to anyone under the age of 18 years old.
- Domestic minors
 - It is recommended that minors carry student identification if available.
 - Minors without identification, who present no obvious threat, will be admitted on a case-by-case basis. - Permission to enter will not be unreasonably withheld.
- Foreign minors
 - It is recommended that visiting foreign nationals who are under the age of 18 present a passport or other valid, government issued, photo identification.
 - Minors without identification, who present no obvious threat, will be admitted on a case-by-case basis. - Permission to enter will not be unreasonably withheld.

PEDESTRIAN ACCESS

- The same rules apply to pedestrians and bicycle riders as for visitors in vehicles.

LOST OR STOLEN IDENTIFICATION

- Lost government issued photo identification should be reported to local authorities as soon as possible.
- Port Security will work with the Convention Center to assist individuals with lost government issued photo identification on a case-by-case basis.

WEAPONS

- The Convention Center is located within Port Everglades which is governed by Federal Regulations concerning the possession of weapons.
- NO WEAPONS are allowed through the Port Everglades checkpoints including weapons registered under "Florida Concealed Weapons Permit".
- Contact an Event Manager for details.
